Department of Small and Local Business Development

DSLBD
DEPT. OF SMALL & LOCAL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Agency Mission

The Department of Small and Local Business Development (DSLBD) supports the development, economic growth, and retention of District-based businesses, and promotes economic development throughout the District's commercial districts.

Agency Vision

DSLBD envisions a business environment which:

1. DC businesses are connected in real-time with local, federal and global business opportunities;
2. Small businesses can navigate government quickly, confidently, and effectively; and,
3. Every entrepreneur and small business with a great idea and a great plan has the capital to make it happen.

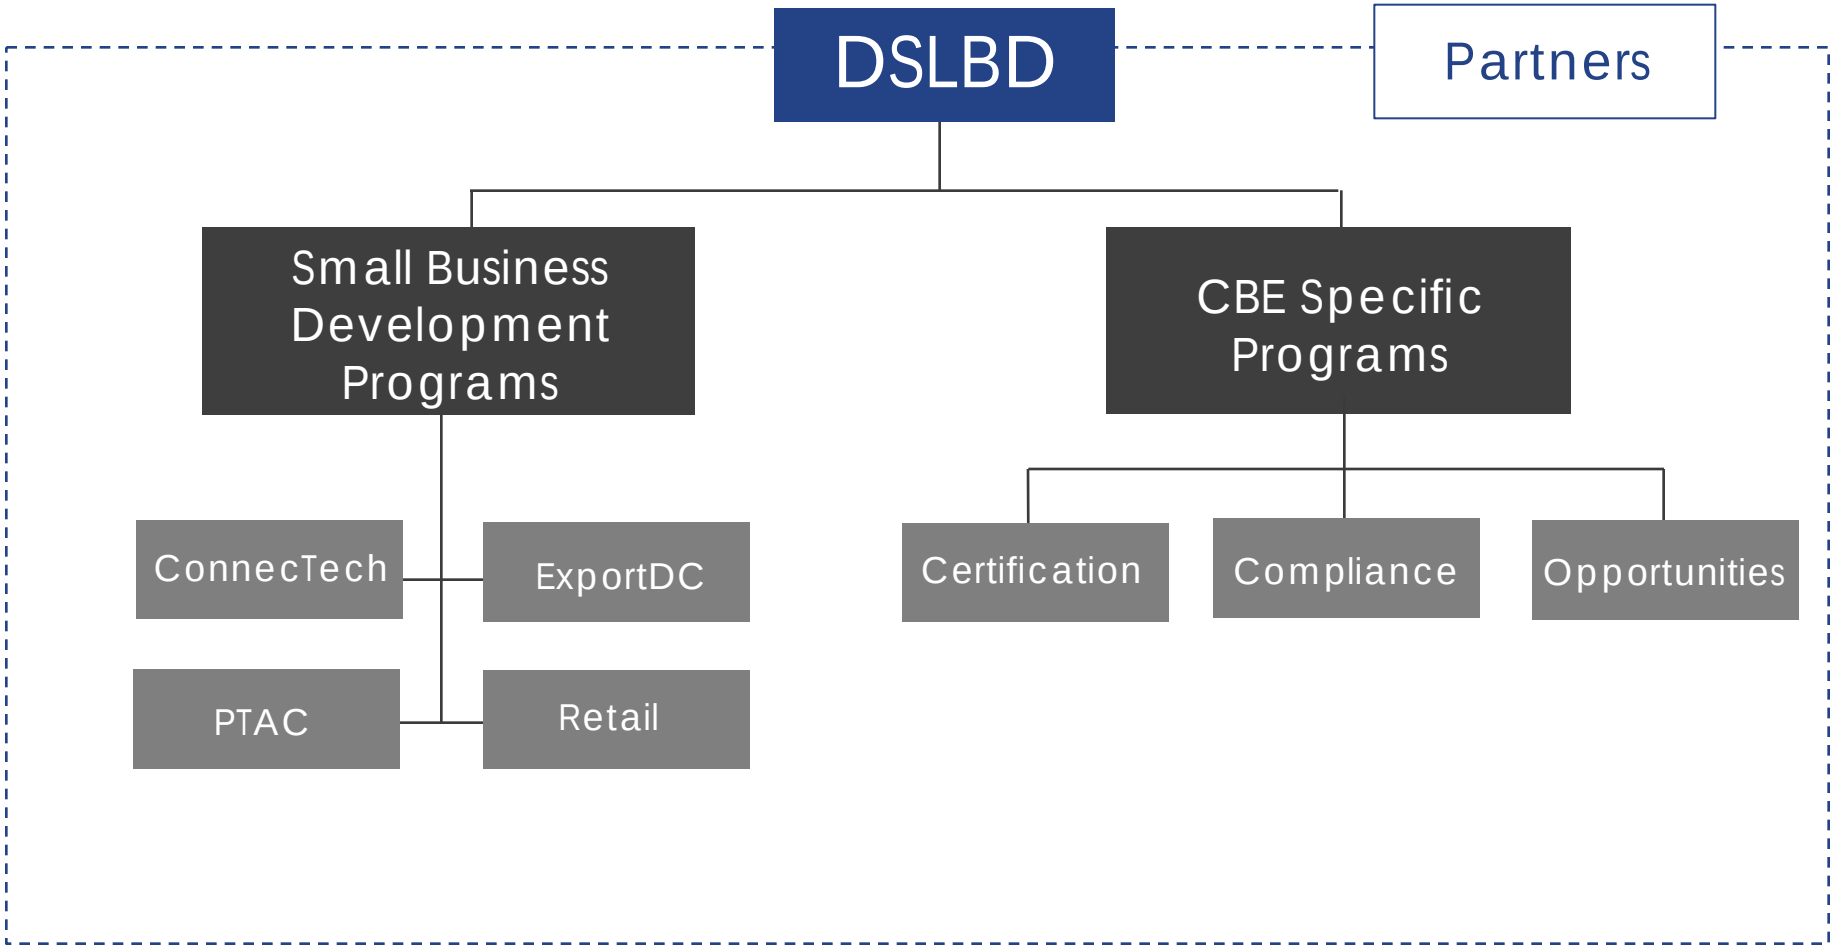
Agency STRUCTURE



CBE Program at a Glance

- The Business Certification Division evaluates businesses headquartered in the District to determine their eligibility to become a Certified Business Enterprise (CBE).

- The DC Government directs spending to CBEs, and they in turn support and contribute to job creation and the strengthening of the local economy.

- The CBE Program provides contracting preference for local businesses so they can better compete for DC Government contracts and procurement opportunities.

Submission & Checklist

I declare, certify, verify, attest or state under penalty of perjury that this application and the supporting documents submitted are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. Pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 22-2402, any person convicted of perjury shall be fined not more than $ 5,000 or imprisoned for not more than 10 years, or both.

I accept I decline

I further declare, certify, verify, attest or state under penalty of perjury that I, _____ (name), _____ (title) of _____ (business name), as majority or 50% owner of the business enterprise, have the authority to represent the business enterprise and to submit this application and supporting documents on behalf of the business enterprise.

I accept I decline

I understand that if such information and claims contained in this application and supporting documents are false, I and each director, officer and principal of the business enterprise may be subject to a civil penalty of not more than $100,000 pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 2-218.63(c). D.C. Official Code § 2-218.63(c) provides that the Attorney General for the District of Columbia may bring civil action in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia against a business enterprise and the directors, officers, or principals of a business enterprise that is reasonably believed to have obtained certification by fraud or deceit or to have willfully furnished substantially inaccurate or incomplete ownership information to the Department.

I accept I decline

I understand that any fraud or misrepresentation on an application shall be grounds for automatic rejection or denial of the application. I also understand that failure to provide full disclosure of any of the requested or required information may result in rejection of this application.

I accept I decline

By selecting the "I Accept" button and typing your name in the Signature Box, you are signing this document electronically. You agree your electronic signature is the legal equivalent of your manual signature on this document. By selecting "I Accept" you consent to be legally bound by the statute and regulations governing the Certified Business Enterprise (CBE) program

Once you select the Submit Final Application button below, you will not be able to change any information that you entered. CBE Program: Business Assistance

The District of Columbia Small Business Resource Center (SBRC) is your gateway to information and services that can help you start and strengthen your business in the District. The SBRC is a partnership between the Department of Small and Local Business Development (DSLBD) and the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (DCRA). Through the SBRC, you can access trainings, workshops, seminars, one-on-one technical and educational.

Frequently Asked Questions

- Is a non-profit eligible for certification? No.
- How long is attendance to the orientation valid? Attendance to CBE Seminar is valid for twelve (12) months.
- How long will the CBE certification process take? The CBE Certification Process can take up to forty-five (45) business days once you submit the application.
- How long is my certification valid? CBE Certification is valid for two (2) years. Companies must re-apply for recertification 45 days prior to their expiration date (online system sends a notification 90, 60 and 30 days prior). The Department has added a 24-hour notice in FY14).
- Does DSLBD grant reciprocity from other jurisdictions? No.
- Does the owner of my business have to live in DC? No.
- If my business is certified as a DBE or CBE by the DC Department of Small and Local Business Development (DSLBD), then are we already certified for DDOT's DBE program? No. DSLBD certification will help when you bid on contracts with District Government agencies. It has no bearing on federally funded highway projects.
- Once I am certified can I add additional categories or NIGP codes to my business profile? Business profiles can be updated during an active certification period by submitting an Upgrade application with the Department.

Frequently Asked Questions

- How do I notify the Department of a change in my certification? Notification, on business letterhead, should be sent to the Department to the attention of the Certification Manager or Director of the Department.

During the term of a certificate, a CBE shall report to the Department any change of address, change of ownership, or other change that may affect the continued eligibility of the CBE within thirty (30) days of the date of the change. Upon learning of any changes, the Department may request documentation regarding continued eligibility and conduct onsite inspections (CDCR 27-814 (2013)).

- How do I reset my username and password? Email the certification division at cbe.feedback@dc.gov or any member of the certification team. Please include the name of your firm, notify us of any changes to the email address provided in the application and ask for your login and password to be reset.
